

The Intelligencer,
PUBLISHED DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
— AT THE —
INTELLIGENCER OFFICE,
25 AND 27 FOURTEENTH STREET.
INTELLIGENCER PUBLISHING CO., Proprietors.
TERMS:
THE YEAR, BY ADVANCE, FORTY DOLLARS.
DAILY, SIX DOLLARS IN THE WEEK. 50 CENTS PER COPY.
DAILY, THREE DOLLARS IN THE WEEK. 25 CENTS PER COPY.
DAILY, TWO DOLLARS IN THE WEEK. 25 CENTS PER COPY.
DAILY, ONE DOLLAR IN THE WEEK. 25 CENTS PER COPY.
WEEKLY, ONE DOLLAR IN ADVANCE. 10 CENTS PER COPY.
WEEKLY, SIX MONTHS. 50 CENTS PER COPY.
The DAILY INTELLIGENCER is delivered by carriers in Wheeling and adjacent towns at 10 cents per week.
Persons wishing to subscribe to the DAILY INTELLIGENCER can do so by sending in their order to the INTELLIGENCER OFFICE on postal card or otherwise. They will be punctually served by carrier.
Testimonials of Respect and Obituary Notices, 50 cents per inch.
Correspondence containing important news solicited from every part of the surrounding country.
Reflected communications will not be returned unless accompanied by sufficient postage.
[The INTELLIGENCER, embracing its several editions, is entered in the Postoffice at Wheeling, W. Va., as second-class matter.]
TELEPHONE NUMBERS:
Editorial Rooms—421. Counting Room—418.

The Intelligencer.
WHEELING, JANUARY 4, 1893.
REPUBLICAN CITY TICKET.
FOR MAYOR,
T. P. CALDWELL.
CITY CLERK,
CHARLES F. SCHULTZ.
CITY SHERIFF,
THOMAS D. BENNETT.
WARDEN,
JOHN R. MARSH.
Chairman Carter.
Chairman Carter says he is not a candidate for the United States senate, having given up that idea when he accepted the chairmanship of the Republican national committee. If Mr. Carter had said this sooner it would have saved the expenditure of a great deal of ink which some of the brethren have been wasting.
Mr. Carter has been accused of trying to "steal" a seat in the senate, as though he had to have some public place or office to earn a living outside of public place and is probably capable of so doing again. At all events circumstances have opened the way for him to try.
Unlike the chairman of the Democratic committee, he did not hold on to the good public job he had while acting as chairman of his party's committee. This should be set down to his credit. The striking difference does not seem to have attracted the attention of the able Mugwump reformers.
No microscope is needed to see in New York politics the makings of a very fine row. David B. Hill looms up too big in the perspective to be included in the area of any known microscope.
In the Valhalla Cloisters.
The impression that Mr. Watterson is in retreat is altogether erroneous. He is at his post mixing with the world and its affairs. Especially is he mixing with Mr. Cleveland, to whom he presents the compliments of the season in this characteristic way:
During his four years in office he learned much. During his four years of retirement he has learned more. He is not only familiar with the public men of the period to a degree rarely attained by a President, but he will carry him to Washington a perspective never attained by a President, and if the extraordinary train of events which has lifted him to heights so high have the effect to broaden his view and liberalize his temper, and to bring him into a more understanding and hearty sympathy with the masses of the people, arrayed under the standards of the great Democratic party, which is and always has been, and always will be, the party of the people, he will make his final exit from power, three blessed and will pass from the scene of the world to take his place in the Valhalla cloisters of Democratic sainthood along with Jefferson, Jackson and Tilden.
God grant for him and the party, that this may be so.
The whereabouts of Jefferson, Jackson and Tilden being thus located with remarkable exactness as to latitude and longitude, Mr. Cleveland is politely informed what he must do if he "wants to go there too." It is the one desire of his life to be snugly tucked away in "the Valhalla cloisters of Democratic sainthood," he cannot do better than to follow the advice of Mr. Watterson as he gives it in the Courier-Journal. He will probably want one more crack at the Presidency before he goes.
The postoffice department has an idea, more or less artistic, of Columbus landing on a two-cent stamp. This is not strictly according to history.
Tascott.
Now comes a detective who has known for two years where to lay his hand on Tascott, and, more than this, who knows that the once much wanted man did not kill the Chicago millionaire. As the story goes, Tascott thought he was assisting in a robbery, having no idea of murder. Under the law this would leave Tascott still in demand.
Most sensational of all, the man who killed Stone is well known, but powerful influences and a good deal of money have saved him from exposure and arrest. This story may be as straight as a dog's hind leg. It seems to need verification in some of its details.
Something was gained toward the solution of the mystery when Mr. Tascott consented to be found. More will be gained when he consents to stay found long enough to be produced in a court of justice.
This man that bath warm feet is not likely to have cold chills running a hurdle race up his back. The same with lovely woman.

The Intelligencer.
WHEELING, JANUARY 4, 1893.
REPUBLICAN CITY TICKET.
FOR MAYOR,
T. P. CALDWELL.
CITY CLERK,
CHARLES F. SCHULTZ.
CITY SHERIFF,
THOMAS D. BENNETT.
WARDEN,
JOHN R. MARSH.
Chairman Carter.
Chairman Carter says he is not a candidate for the United States senate, having given up that idea when he accepted the chairmanship of the Republican national committee. If Mr. Carter had said this sooner it would have saved the expenditure of a great deal of ink which some of the brethren have been wasting.
Mr. Carter has been accused of trying to "steal" a seat in the senate, as though he had to have some public place or office to earn a living outside of public place and is probably capable of so doing again. At all events circumstances have opened the way for him to try.
Unlike the chairman of the Democratic committee, he did not hold on to the good public job he had while acting as chairman of his party's committee. This should be set down to his credit. The striking difference does not seem to have attracted the attention of the able Mugwump reformers.
No microscope is needed to see in New York politics the makings of a very fine row. David B. Hill looms up too big in the perspective to be included in the area of any known microscope.
In the Valhalla Cloisters.
The impression that Mr. Watterson is in retreat is altogether erroneous. He is at his post mixing with the world and its affairs. Especially is he mixing with Mr. Cleveland, to whom he presents the compliments of the season in this characteristic way:
During his four years in office he learned much. During his four years of retirement he has learned more. He is not only familiar with the public men of the period to a degree rarely attained by a President, but he will carry him to Washington a perspective never attained by a President, and if the extraordinary train of events which has lifted him to heights so high have the effect to broaden his view and liberalize his temper, and to bring him into a more understanding and hearty sympathy with the masses of the people, arrayed under the standards of the great Democratic party, which is and always has been, and always will be, the party of the people, he will make his final exit from power, three blessed and will pass from the scene of the world to take his place in the Valhalla cloisters of Democratic sainthood along with Jefferson, Jackson and Tilden.
God grant for him and the party, that this may be so.
The whereabouts of Jefferson, Jackson and Tilden being thus located with remarkable exactness as to latitude and longitude, Mr. Cleveland is politely informed what he must do if he "wants to go there too." It is the one desire of his life to be snugly tucked away in "the Valhalla cloisters of Democratic sainthood," he cannot do better than to follow the advice of Mr. Watterson as he gives it in the Courier-Journal. He will probably want one more crack at the Presidency before he goes.
The postoffice department has an idea, more or less artistic, of Columbus landing on a two-cent stamp. This is not strictly according to history.
Tascott.
Now comes a detective who has known for two years where to lay his hand on Tascott, and, more than this, who knows that the once much wanted man did not kill the Chicago millionaire. As the story goes, Tascott thought he was assisting in a robbery, having no idea of murder. Under the law this would leave Tascott still in demand.
Most sensational of all, the man who killed Stone is well known, but powerful influences and a good deal of money have saved him from exposure and arrest. This story may be as straight as a dog's hind leg. It seems to need verification in some of its details.
Something was gained toward the solution of the mystery when Mr. Tascott consented to be found. More will be gained when he consents to stay found long enough to be produced in a court of justice.
This man that bath warm feet is not likely to have cold chills running a hurdle race up his back. The same with lovely woman.

Mr. Tascott, alleged murderer, opens the new year in fine style. He has no intention of dropping out of consideration.
It is complained that the Columbus head on the souvenir coin is not a good likeness. With something more than forty "only originals" to select from it is pretty hard to hit the exact thing. Perhaps the head on the coin will become the official counterfeit of the discoverer.

Natural Gas—What Next?
When the natural gas is about for an hour or a day we begin to have a lively appreciation of the value of this best of all fuel up to date. Yesterday was a day of reminder, and probably most of us thought more of the day's inconvenience than of the years of comfort the natural gas has brought.
What are we going to do after the natural gas has been exhausted? To have to go back to coal would seem hard lines. It used to be thought that a cheap artificial gas would be ready to take the place of natural gas. Now less reliance is placed on this substitute. It does not seem to be getting ready, in spite of promising experiments.
Perhaps electric heating will be ready for us. That will come; how soon, is the interesting question.
The whisky trust seems to be after all the fire-water in sight. It must have great confidence in the scheme to increase the internal revenue tax. That would be a great haul for the trust. Some things in this world are much easier than working for a living.

Senator Faulkner at Home.
From Washington comes the statement that Senator Faulkner has long had in mind the purchase of a lot adjoining Senator Keena's residence on which to erect a home for himself.
A little while ago it did look as though Senator Faulkner would have use for that residence. Now a large element of doubt has entered into the senatorial matter, and its other name is J. N. Camden. It may be that the doubt will be resolved in Senator Faulkner's favor.
If so the INTELLIGENCER will be glad to see him comfortably settled in his own home at Washington. Mr. Faulkner is a very pleasing gentleman when he is not absorbed in politics.
They are not cracking so many jokes about the Umbria as they did about the Spro. There is something in a name, after all.

Cleveland and Murphy.
It is strongly urged in behalf of Murphy, the Troy statesman, that although he despised Cleveland he gave him a loyal support and helped to carry his state for him. Then somebody wants to know whether Murphy is not as promising as Cleveland was when he was dug of obscurity. Then up jumps another inquisitive one who asks what Cleveland's opposition amounts to, anyhow.
Very many questions are being asked. The answer to all of them is that Murphy is going to sit beside David Bennett Hill. Isn't this enough to make Cleveland glad for a whole year, maybe for four?

Mr. Cleveland's ideas about the respective powers of co-ordinate branches of the government have changed since he went out of the White House. This may be because the fat gentlemen do not desire to co-ordinate with Mr. "Ed." Murphy, who is to subordinate to Mr. Hill.
When we hear that a suckling colt has been sold for the enormous price of $45,000, it is safe to infer that money is very plentiful, that somebody is a nunny, or that some other body has not told the truth. The colt, at least, is a reality.
Brons the new year passes out as the old it may see North Wheeling included in the city's street car service. There is no certainty that it will. Meanwhile the people of that region are becoming famous pedestrians.
Mr. CAMDEN's health is better than it was last spring, and his business interests do not press so heavily on him. This is not encouraging news to gentlemen who have their eyes set on a seat in the senate.

The people of West Liberty, Ohio are incensed against a certain colored man for eloping with a certain white girl. Why not harbor some feelings against the white girl? She is in it.
The gossips who know so much more about the treasury than Secretary Foster knows should get a little treasury of their own and practice on it.
WHEELING has had great luck in escaping great fires. She has also the good fortune to have her fires well handled.
BREAKFAST BUDGET.
A powerful lamp, which distinctly illuminates objects over half a mile distant by means of a great reflector, is to be adopted in the French army. It is carried on a light wagon, behind the soldiers, and they will be in obscurity, while the enemy and all objects in front will be made conspicuous.
Ten girls in a composition class were told to write a telegram such as would be suitable to send home in case of a railway accident while traveling. One of the girls wrote: "Dear papa: Mamma is killed. I am in the refreshment room."
The Wabash Railway company will sell no stopover tickets to anybody for any points whatsoever. Those who wish to "stop over" must buy tickets to the desired point and then by tickets from there to the end of the journey.
Kansas City Star: On the depot platform at Warrensburg, Mo., the other day somebody painted a locomotive whistle so naturally that one of the normal students kissed the girl good-by.

Kansas City Star: "Sam Sanson," "You Youson," "Hobob" and "Ole Olson" are all running at large in Kansas where there are not enough crows to drain an alcohol lamp.
The electric street cars of Albany, N. Y., are provided with an automatic device that show the name of each street just before it is reached.
There is a cow at Paris, Texas, with ten horns—two on her head and two on each of her four feet.
The cattle plague has been doing fearful havoc all over Japan. Milk is becoming a scarcity, and beef as sold in the markets can not be partaken of without considerable risk.

A Chicago brewing firm has made Mrs. Potter Palmer hopping mad by sending out their 1893 calendars with her lithographed portrait on them.
Brooklyn has a school for carpentering for women. Some very fine work has already been turned out.
A Clarence (Mo.) man has been fined $6.75 for the luxury of riding a mule on the sidewalks.
New Zealand has set apart two islands for the preservation of wild birds and other animals.

PERSONAL POINTS.
Guy de Maupassant's yacht, Bel Ami, on which many of the author's stories were written, is for sale at Cannes. Maupassant, by the way, began life as a clerk in the French admiralty and in the book which contains his record, together with that of all other government employees, is a note stating that his principal defect in the eyes of his superiors was "want of style."
The crown princess of Sweden, who is still suffering from weak lungs, will not spend this winter in Egypt, as has been her custom for several years. She will remain, it is said, at Cannes until spring. Little hope is entertained of the complete recovery of her royal highness, who is a cousin of the emperor of Germany.
Florence Nightingale, the famous nurse of the Crimea, whose deeds of simple mercy and charity were embodied in song and story until she became England's favorite heroine, is now seventy-two years old and lives in perfect seclusion.
Franklin W. Smith, of Boston, is still agitating the establishment of a national gallery of history and art in Washington to cost ultimately $10,000,000.
Bronson Howard says that American managers are now seeking American plays, and that foreign dramatic works are merely regarded as stopgaps.
President Low announces a gift of $10,000 to Columbia college, to be divided between biology and history.
Amelle River is said to have received $5,000 for her new story, "Barbara Doring," and sales are large.

MORNING SMILES.
Merchant—"I shall advise your salary $50 this year. You have been remarkably correct and careful for the past twelve months. Haven't made a single mistake, have you?" Bookkeeper—"Only one." Merchant—"What was that?" Bookkeeper—"I thought I should get a raise of a hundred at least."
He—"An agnostic, my dear, is one who knows nothing." She—"I see. You refer to the youth fresh from college." He—"Or, rather, I should say, one who does not claim to know anything." She—"Ah! then of course I am wrong. No, you cannot mean the youth fresh from college." —Boston Transcript.
Brown—"There were some things in which the ancients surpassed the moderns." Dunn—"What, for instance?" Brown—"Nob was a better weather prophet than the fellows who make the predictions nowadays." —Puck.
"See that team of horses, how nicely they go together, John. Why can't a man and woman pull together like that?" "There's every reason, my dear. Those horses have only one tongue between them." —Yonkers Statesman.
Mrs. De Neat (reprovingly)—"I put a cake of soap on your washstand nearly three months ago, and it's as large now as it was then." Small Son—"Yes, mamma, I'm—I'm keepin' it to remember you by." —Good News.
"Things never does go right in this world," said the pessimistic hired man. "Bobwire fences didn't come in until after leather pants had gone out of style." —Indianapolis Journal.
He—"Now that you have rejected me, may I say one word to you as a friend?" She—"Certainly." He—"Well, I think you are making the greatest mistake of your life." —Puck.
She—"Dudes haven't more than half sense." Mr. Sappy—"Aw, Miss Maw, are there no exceptions?" "Oh, yes, Mr. Sappy; some haven't any." —Brooklyn Life.

A MID-WINTER TALE.
BY A BRIDGEPORT POST.
The shades of night were falling fast. As through old Bridgeport town there passed a lone and cold and shivering form. And from their mouths on either side The white foam flew in frothy flakes. Such as fresh drawn spongers make. Wind and cold were in the air. On like the reckless wind they went. They made the mud and gravel fly. And lost no time in kicking him. He good about with stout boots, and bore. Their speed kept in a graceful soar.
The tongue and mules were fastened good By ropes strong to iron and wood. At times a kick would strike to the air. And noise the tongue high up in air; And then again with graceful bound Occasionally 'twould strike to the ground. O'er the mud and gravel they went. Their wild and furious run they made; They'd safely passed the iron mill; The Ohio Valley they were in; And here they were in town at last. Arriving at the bridge street gate They stopped their run to meditate.
"I've grazed," said one, "on mountain glade And fought flies in Kentucky shade; I've drank from rushing mountain streams And rook on oaks and drank from their same. I've climbed the steep to mountain camp And dandered through the swamp so damp. In mountains, plains, swamps or towns I've never met such cold and down. As I've seen since starting out. This little half-breed's playful run. The angles, curves, the turns and crooks. They're as sure as I've learned out of books. If there had been some ice or frost I never could have kept my foot."
"At points the cur's high up in air; At others you go down a stair. To find it hidden in the clay Far from the cheerful light of day. Our driver's dead; we broke his neck. These harnesses and this harness we'll soon By vigorous kicks, and o'er the moon, Then we'll then we'll back our ears And start as civil engineers."
To prevent the drip Or any other similar epidemic, the blood and the whole system should be kept in healthy condition. If you feel worn out or have "that tired feeling" in the morning do not be guilty of neglect. Give immediate attention to yourself. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla to give strength, purify the blood and prevent disease.
Hood's Pills cure liver ills, jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, constipation.
An Invaluable Remedy for Colds.
Sheriff Hardman, of Tyler Co., W. V., was almost prostrated with a cold when he began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. In speaking of it he says: "It gave me almost instant relief. I find it to be an invaluable remedy for colds." For sale by druggists.
Baltimore, Md., Jan. 3, 1893.
On and after December 30, 1892, until further notice, all passenger trains, except No. 108, leaving Wheeling at 6:10 a.m., will stop at Elm Grove to let on or take on passengers for such points as they are scheduled to stop.

Can you complain? Bartin's Kidney and Liver Pills effects a permanent cure. 25 cents.
Baltimore, Md., Jan. 3, 1893.
On and after December 30, 1892, until further notice, all passenger trains, except No. 108, leaving Wheeling at 6:10 a.m., will stop at Elm Grove to let on or take on passengers for such points as they are scheduled to stop.

Can you complain? Bartin's Kidney and Liver Pills effects a permanent cure. 25 cents.
Baltimore, Md., Jan. 3, 1893.
On and after December 30, 1892, until further notice, all passenger trains, except No. 108, leaving Wheeling at 6:10 a.m., will stop at Elm Grove to let on or take on passengers for such points as they are scheduled to stop.

ELECTRIC SIGNALING.
The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad to Put in a New System.
The Baltimore & Ohio railroad company has adopted and will at once put into use on every part of its system where it can be made available, says the Baltimore American, an electric system of signaling, devised by Mr. Charles Seiden, superintendent of the telegraph department, and which is said to be the simplest yet put into actual use. It is especially intended for use on long bridges and in those places where a single track is being used while a second track is being repaired or removed. The object of the device is to prevent the possibility of accident to trains, and it is so arranged that the operators or switchmen, who by means of signals control these tracks, shall through an electric lock be unable to give a clear signal without a full understanding between each other, so as to insure but one train within the protected limits at the same time, thus avoiding collision. The system as arranged does not require telegraph operators, and the signals are made by electric tap-gongs, magnets. A preconcerted number of taps indicates that the employe at one end desires to let a train in the protected portion. If there be no train in that portion the employe at the other end so designated by a given number of taps, and after doing so he depresses a small button. This causes a current of electricity to flow through a magnet which is attached to the lever governing the semaphore signal at the other end, and during the time that the current flows the employe can move the lever and bring the semaphore into position indicating "safety." After the train has passed his point he lets go of the lever and gravity places the semaphore in the "danger" position.
At the same time, the current having ceased to flow, his lever is locked and he can not again set the semaphore in position indicating "safety" until the employe at the other end again, by electricity, unlocks the lever.
After a train has passed out of the block, the employe at the outgoing end by a certain number of taps, indicates the fact to the other employe, when it is then proper to allow another train to enter into the protected section.

FACTS BRIEFLY TOLD.
Spain has 5,000,000 illiterate people.
British India has 10,417 licensed opium shops.
No Vassar College graduate was ever divorced after marriage, it is claimed.
A St. Louis paper offers a prize of $1 a day for errors discovered in its advertising columns.
A music box that was accidentally touched off in St. Louis the other night frightened away the burglars.
Every time a bank in China fails they cut off the bank officers's heads, and no bank has failed there for over 500 years.
The Danes lead the world as butter makers. Danish butter has taken the first prize at most of the world's fairs, including the Philadelphia centennial.
The astronomers at the Paris observatory are already making preparations for the observations of the expected total eclipse of the sun in April next.
The most costly piece of railway line in the world is that between the Mansion House and Aldgate stations in London, which required the expenditure of close upon $10,000,000 a mile.
A Philadelphia boat builder is making an eight-oared aluminum racing shell for Cornell and another for Harvard. Such boats weigh 175 pounds. A paper or cedar shell weighs about 225 pounds.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
Have sold and used in my family for several years Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have found it one of the most useful and satisfactory remedies I ever handled.—O. H. Lewis, Druggist, Salt Lake City, Utah. For sale by druggists. DAW
One of our natural white oil in the world. Nature's Hair Restorer, purely a mineral product. Price 50c. For sale by Logan Drug Co. See miniature oil well.

Eczema and Scrofula.
Lost Two Children Before He Died.
Cuticura—Saved Wife and Two Children's Lives by Using Cuticura Remedies.
I have found the CUTICURA REMEDIES to be just what you recommend them. My wife was covered all over with pimples, and tortured nearly to death with Eczema, as the doctor called it. I have never found anything so good for a family that is troubled with scrofula and blood and skin diseases. I believe the CUTICURA REMEDIES saved the lives of my wife and two children. I have never found anything so good for a family that is troubled with scrofula and blood and skin diseases. I believe the CUTICURA REMEDIES saved the lives of my wife and two children. I have never found anything so good for a family that is troubled with scrofula and blood and skin diseases. I believe the CUTICURA REMEDIES saved the lives of my wife and two children.

Cuticura Resolvent.
The new blood and skin purifier, internally and externally, the great skin cure and CUTICURA, SOAKS TO EXTERMINATE SCALDS, externally, instantly relieves and speedily cures every disease and humor of the skin, scalp and blood, and loss of hair, from infancy to age, from pimples to scrofula.
Sold everywhere. Price, CUTICURA, 25c; RESOLVENT, 50c. Prepared by the CUTICURA & CUTICURA CORPORATION, Boston.
How to Cure Skin Diseases. 12 pages, 5c. Illustrations and 10 testimonials, mailed free.

LOVE HATE. Wholesome, Clean and Refreshing. Made by CUTICURA & CUTICURA CORPORATION, Boston.
I CAN'T BREATHE.
Chest Pains, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Hay Fever, and all respiratory troubles, relieved in one minute by the CUTICURA ANTI-SPASM. Holding the tin in your hand

MISS AYRES' MURDER.
A Man Who Had Deceived Her Thought to be the Guilty One.
SACRAMENTO, CAL., Jan. 3.—The authorities here have just received news of a sensational character implicating George Jeffries, a Southern Pacific engineer, in the murder of Miss Ayres at Brighton. The detectives learned that Jeffries, who has a wife and two children in Oakland, was married to Miss Ayres on July 8 last under an assumed name. She thought he was unmarried, and it is reported that her discovery of his perjury and her threat to expose him led to her murder. Jeffries has been arrested and brought here.

THE GREAT DOMESTIC STAND-BY.
Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is now recognized to be a family necessity. Keep it handy.

AT BEDTIME I TAKE A PLEASANT HERB DRINK.
THE NEXT MORNING I FEEL BRIGHT AND NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER.
My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs and is prepared for sale as easily as tea. It is called
LANE'S MEDICINE.
All druggists sell it at 10c and 25c a package. If you cannot get it send your address for a free sample. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day in order to keep the system healthy. Address, CHARLES F. WOODWARD, 10 Boylston St., Boston.

TURN OVER A NEW LEAF IN YOUR OLD LEDGER.
OR WHAT IS BETTER, LET US SELL YOU ONE OF OUR NEW
+ Custom Made Ledgers, from
+ 500 to 1,000 pages. If the
+ business does not require
+ anything so large and fine,
+ we have them in almost any
+ grade, all good for purpose
+ intended. Also Cash Books,
+ Journals and small goods for
+ offices. Our prices are right.

FRANK STANTON,
1301 MARKET STREET.

"FRITZ" LUKERT CAN BE FOUND AT BOTH MARKETS.
—AT—
AUG. ZOECKLER'S OLD STAND.
Fresh and Smoked Meats, Pudding, Sausage, Bologna, Etc.
"Unser Fritz" Brand of Hams

AMUSEMENTS.
GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
O. C. GENTHER, Lessee and Manager.
Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 4, 5 and 6. Matinee Monday and Wednesday Afternoon.
HARRY W. WILLIAMS' METEORS.
America's Greatest Specialty Show.
LOOK AT THE NAMES OF THE GREAT SHOW: James F. Hoey, Conway and Leland, Marion Carleton, John T. Orndorf and Cain, Boland and Anna, Tarr and Mager, Tarr and Mager, Gallagher and West, and Leslie and Collins.
The Largest and Highest Salaried Specialty Company in the World.
Prices—Orchestra Chairs, 50c and 50c; Dress Circle, 25c; Gallery, 15c. Seats on sale at Genther's store.

OPERA HOUSE.
ONE EVENING ONLY, Wednesday, Jan. 4, 1893.
Extraordinary Engagement of the Famous
Robin Hood Opera Co.
Messrs. Barnabee, Karl and McDonald, Proprietors, in Reginald De Koven's and Harry B. Smith's of Greatest Comic Opera.
ROBIN HOOD.
250 nights at the Garden Theatre, New York City. A cast of Superior Excellence.
50 PEOPLE. 50 PEOPLE.
Grand Chorus Splendid Scenery. Own Orchestra. Prices—$1.00, $1.00, 75c, 50c. Seats on sale Monday.

OPERA HOUSE.
SATURDAY, JANUARY 7, MATINEE AND NIGHT.
The Ideal Young American Actress,
Miss Rosabel Morrison,
The Famous Original Marguerite of Lewis Morrison's Faust, in the original of all railroad plays.
The Danger Signal.
By Henry C. DeMille, author of the "Lost Paradise." Presented with Marvelous Scenery.
Prices—Matinee, 25c and 50c; night, 50c, 75c and $1.00. Seats on sale Thursday.

OPERA HOUSE.
THURSDAY, JANUARY 6-8, TWO FRIDAYS, 9-11 NIGHTS.
LAUGHING ROOM ONLY!
DELANCE & RISING
—IN—
TANGLED UP
—AND—
"WHY?"
FUNNIEST OF COMEDIES.
Incidental to the comedy, the famous KEEPER TIME LANCE.
Seats on sale Tuesday.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
O. C. GENTHER, Lessee and Manager.
THREE NIGHTS, JANUARY 5, 6, 7, MATINEE SATURDAY.
The Favorite Comedian and Sweetest of Sweet Singers,
James A. Reilly,
In His Very Latest Successful Comedy Drama,
A GERMAN SOLDIER
REALISTIC SCENIC EFFECTS.
A Soldier's Dream of Home, The Old Maid, The City of Dreadful Night, The Leap to Life into the Silver Mine.
The Last and the First Comedians.
Delancey Brothers, Chas. and Geo. C. Deane, George and Harry, the Best of all with their repertoire.

LOVE HATE. Wholesome, Clean and Refreshing. Made by CUTICURA & CUTICURA CORPORATION, Boston.
I CAN'T BREATHE.
Chest Pains, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Hay Fever, and all respiratory troubles, relieved in one minute by the CUTICURA ANTI-SPASM. Holding the tin in your hand

MISS AYRES' MURDER.
A Man Who Had Deceived Her Thought to be the Guilty One.
SACRAMENTO, CAL., Jan. 3.—The authorities here have just received news of a sensational character implicating George Jeffries, a Southern Pacific engineer, in the murder of Miss Ayres at Brighton. The detectives learned that Jeffries, who has a wife and two children in Oakland, was married to Miss Ayres on July 8 last under an assumed name. She thought he was unmarried, and it is reported that her discovery of his perjury and her threat to expose him led to her murder. Jeffries has been arrested and brought here.

THE GREAT DOMESTIC STAND-BY.
Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is now recognized to be a family necessity. Keep it handy.

AT BEDTIME I TAKE A PLEASANT HERB DRINK.
THE NEXT MORNING I FEEL BRIGHT AND NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER.
My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and kidneys, and is a pleasant laxative. This drink is made from herbs and is prepared for sale as easily as tea. It is called
LANE'S MEDICINE.
All druggists sell it at 10c and 25c a package. If you cannot get it send your address for a free sample. Lane's Family Medicine moves the bowels each day in order to keep the system healthy. Address, CHARLES F. WOODWARD, 10 Boylston St., Boston.

TURN OVER A NEW LEAF IN YOUR OLD LEDGER.
OR WHAT IS BETTER, LET US SELL YOU ONE OF OUR NEW
+ Custom Made Ledgers, from
+ 500 to 1,000 pages. If the
+ business does not require
+ anything so large and fine,
+ we have them in almost any
+ grade, all good for purpose
+ intended. Also Cash Books,
+ Journals and small goods for
+ offices. Our prices are right.

FRANK STANTON,
1301 MARKET STREET.

"FRITZ" LUKERT CAN BE FOUND AT BOTH MARKETS.
—AT—
AUG. ZOECKLER'S OLD STAND.
Fresh and Smoked Meats, Pudding, Sausage, Bologna, Etc.
"Unser Fritz" Brand of Hams

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
FOR SALE—A SMALL, WELL
established Millinery Business at 112 Main street, at a bargain, satisfactory terms, etc.
WANTED—A POSITION AS STEN-
OGRAPHER by a young lady with three years' experience. Please refer to the address Room No. 4 City Bank Building.
NOTICE.
The Woman's Hospital Association will hold its regular monthly meeting this (Wednesday) afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Hospital. A full attendance is desired.
MISS MARTHA J. HARR, Secretary.
NOTICE.
The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Union Benevolent Society will be held at the M. E. Church (Wednesday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. It is with the first meeting of the year a full attendance is requested.
MRS. W. J. W. COWDEN, Secretary.

CHARD OF THANKS.
I take this method of expressing to the citizens of Ohio county my sincere and grateful thanks for the kind and courteous treatment we have received at your hands in the last four years, and wishing you all a happy and prosperous New Year.
Yours respectfully,
LEWIS STERNROD, E.S. & O. C.
WHEELING, W. VA., December 29, 1892.

10 PER CENT INVESTMENT.
The brick property 2238-2240, 2242 and 2244 Main street. Real estate in this location will be sure to advance. It is now rented to good tenants at $700 per year, at very low rents. If sold at once $7,000 will buy it.
O. O. SMITH,
Over Wheat & Hancher's Jewelry Store, 2238-2240.

SKATES, 50c.
STREET CLAMP—LATEST PATTERNS.
ALL SIZES, FOR MEN AND BOYS.
K. HOGE, 1113 MARKET STREET.
A No. 1 MACKEREL.
ALBERT STOLZE & CO.,
1117 Market Street,
STEPHEN MCCULLOUGH,
Carpenter, Contractor and Builder,
NO. 23 FIFTEENTH STREET.
All Work Promptly Attended to.
Telephone No. 304.

GOLD BAND FINE ENGLISH WARE.
A STOCK PATTERNS
WITH US.
And can be had in separate pieces as well as sets, and matched for years to come. As ready as white ware.
2121 Market St. opp. McBurn House.

To Natural Gas Consumers.
A break having occurred in our pumping machinery, consumers are requested to use natural gas as sparingly as possible while repairs are being made.
Natural Gas Company of West Virginia.

Unlike the Dutch Process No Alkalies.
—OR—
Other Chemicals are used in the preparation of
W. BAKER & CO.'S Breakfast Cocoa which is absolutely pure and soluble.
It has more than three times the strength of Cocoa mixed with Sugar, Arrowroot or Sugar, and is far more economical, costing less than one cent a cup. It is delicious, nourishing, and easily digested.
Sold by Grocers everywhere.
W. BAKER & CO., Dorchester, Mass.

We Are Closing Out To Quit Business.
The well-known Domestic and Standard Sewing Machines at $30.00 cash, while the stock lasts. Second-hand and shop-worn machines from $3.00 to $10.00.
Bicycles, office outfittings and supplies at correspondingly low prices.
It will pay you to investigate.
EDW. L. ROSE & CO.,
21 TWELFTH STREET.
COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE.
In the Circuit Court of Ohio County, West Virginia.
J. A. Monroe, complainant, vs. Robert S. Williamson and others, defendants.
By virtue of an order entered in the above entitled cause on the thirteenth day of December, 1892, it is referred to the undersigned commissioner of said court to ascertain and report to the court the value of the real estate described in the bill as belonging to the defendant Robert S. Williamson, and his amounts and priorities, and to whom owing.
Second—Any other matters deemed pertinent by the commissioner, or required by any party interested.
Notice is hereby given that this undersigned has called upon the defendant Robert S. Williamson, on the thirteenth day of February, 1893, commencing at 9 o'clock a.m., at the time and place above, No. 1491 Chapin Street, in the City of Wheeling, Ohio County, West Virginia, as the value of such real estate, and will proceed to ascertain and report the same to the court, and the order of reference required.
Given under my hand this thirteenth day of January, 1893.
GEORGE H. E. GILCHRIST, Commissioner.

NOTICE TO LIEN HOLDERS.
To all persons holding liens, by judgment or otherwise, on the real estate of any party to these proceedings, to wit: Robert S. Williamson, et al., in the above entitled cause, to the effect that the Circuit Court of Ohio County, made in a case therein pending, is hereby notified that the said Robert S. Williamson, et al., have been ordered to pay to the said court, on or before the first day of February, 1893, the sum of $10,000, and in default of such payment, the said real estate is to be sold to satisfy said judgment, and the said Robert S. Williamson, et al., are hereby notified that they are to appear at the said sale, on or before the first day of February, 1893, at 9 o'clock a.m., at the time and place above, No. 1491 Chapin Street, in the City of Wheeling, Ohio County, West Virginia, as the value of such real estate, and will proceed to ascertain and report the same to the court, and the order of reference required.
Given under my hand this thirteenth day of January, 1893.
GEORGE H. E. GILCHRIST, Commissioner.

NOTICE TO LIEN HOLDERS.
To all persons holding liens, by judgment or otherwise, on the real estate of any party to these proceedings, to wit: Robert S. Williamson, et al., in the above entitled cause, to the effect that the Circuit Court of Ohio County, made in a case therein pending, is hereby notified that the said Robert S. Williamson, et al., have been ordered to pay to the said court, on or before the first day of February, 1893, the sum of $10,000, and in default of such payment, the said real estate is to be sold to satisfy said judgment, and the said Robert S. Williamson, et al., are hereby notified that they are to appear at the said sale, on or before the first day of February, 1893, at 9 o'clock a.m., at the time and place above, No. 1491 Chapin Street, in the City of Wheeling, Ohio County, West Virginia, as the value of such real estate, and will proceed to ascertain and report the same to the court, and the order of reference required.
Given under my hand this thirteenth day of January, 189